Important Notice

The clauses herein are made pursuant to laws applicable in Hong Kong and Malaysia and is a statement pursuant to Section 25(5) of the Insurance Act (Cap. 142) or any amendments thereof, as applicable under the laws of Singapore.

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim, or it may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Inadequate Space To Answer

If there is inadequate space to answer any of the questions or make any comment or you need to disclose something to us because of your duty of disclosure, please attach a separate piece of paper to this questionnaire giving full details of additional information.
